"[...] Moreover, St. Augustine says that God will cause those who in this life have most succored those holy souls, when they come to purgatory themselves, to be most succored by others. I may here observe that, in practice, one of the best suffrages is to hear Mass for them, and during the Holy Sacrifice to recommend them to God by the merits and passion of Jesus Christ.

"The following form may be used: 'Eternal Father, I offer you this Sacrifice of the body and blood of Jesus Christ, with all the pains which he suffered in his life and death; and by his passion I recommend to you the souls in purgatory, and especially that of . . . etc.' And it is a very charitable act to recommend, at the same time, the souls of all those who are at the point of death."

Feast of the Immaculate Conception and Consecration to Our Lady: We are blessed to have an evening Mass on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, December 8, a holy day of obligation. Many choose this feast to make or renew their total consecration to Our Lady according to the method of St. Louis de Montfort. There will be an opportunity to make or renew your consecration before the Blessed Sacrament after Mass. Those wishing to participate should begin the thirty-three-day preparation on November 5. A helpful resource is True Devotion to Mary with Preparation for Total Consecration, published by TAN Books.

A Word from Father

My dear Faithful, as we begin this month dedicated to prayer and suffrages for the Poor Souls in Purgatory, I offer for your reflection these words of St. Alphonsus Liguori from his book The Great Means of Salvation and of Perfection (ch. 1, §3).

"[...] let us think of the pleasure it will give Jesus Christ to see us endeavoring to deliver his beloved spouses [the Poor Souls in Purgatory] from prison, in order that he may have them with him in paradise.

"Let us think of the store of merit which we can lay up by practicing this great act of charity; let us think, too, that those souls are not ungrateful, and will never forget the great benefit we do them in relieving them of their pains, and in obtaining for them, by our prayers, anticipation of their entrance into glory; so that when they are there they will never neglect to pray for us.

"And if God promises mercy to him who practices mercy towards his neighbor—'Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy' (Matt. 5:7)—he may reasonably expect to be saved who remembers to assist those souls so afflicted, and yet so dear to God."
